

Marguerite Dixen
President

Marguerite Dixen serves as president of Third Coast Underwriters. Having 25 years of experience in multiple lines of business, she is familiar with the needs of agents and customers and has a proven track-record of meeting them.

Prior to starting the Third Coast operation she was Senior Vice President of a specialty workers compensation company new to the Midwest and went on to lead their nationwide workers' compensation construction practice. Marguerite has also managed a national account casualty operation for a major carrier.

She holds a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Wisconsin at Madison, and is designated both as a Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriter and an Associate in Risk Management.
